IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

A BILL

To strengthen implementation of the Senator Paul Simon
Water for the Poor Act of 2005, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Senator Paul Simon
5 Water for the World Act of 2012”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 Congress finds the following:

8 (1) The Senator Paul Simon Water for the 9 Poor Act of 2005 (Public Law 109–121)—

1 (A) makes access to safe water and sanita-
2 tion for developing countries a specific policy
3 objective of United States foreign assistance
4 programs;

5 (B) requires the Secretary of State to—

6 (i) develop a strategy to elevate the 7 role of water and sanitation policy; and

8 (ii) improve the effectiveness of 9 United States assistance programs under-10 taken in support of that strategy;

11 (C) codifies Target 10 of the United Na-
12 tions Millennium Development Goals; and

13 (D) seeks to reduce by half between 1990
14 (the baseline year) and 2015—

15 (i) the proportion of people who are 16 unable to reach or afford safe drinking 17 water; and

18 (ii) the proportion of people without 19 access to basic sanitation.

20 (2) For maximum effectiveness of assistance,
21 safe drinking water, sanitation, and hygiene must be 22 coordinated with and integrated into programs and 23 strategies for food security, global health, environ-
24 ment, education, and gender equality.

1 (3) On August 1, 2008, Congress passed H.
2 Con. Res. 318, which—

3 (A) supports the goals and ideals of the 4 International Year of Sanitation; and

5 (B) recognizes the importance of sanitation
6 on public health, poverty reduction, economic 7 and social development, and the environment.

8 (4) While progress is being made on safe water
9 and sanitation efforts—

10 (A) more than 884,000,000 people
11 throughout the world lack access to safe drink-12 ing water; and

13 (B) 2 of every 5 people in the world do not 14 have access to basic sanitation services.

15 (5) The health consequences of unsafe drinking
16 water and poor sanitation are significant—

17 (A) at any given time, half of the world's 18 hospital beds are occupied by patients suffering 19 from diseases associated with lack of access to 20 safe drinking water, inadequate sanitation and 21 poor hygiene;

22 (B) more than 3,575,000 people die each 23 year from water-related disease; and

1 (C) chronic or acute diarrhea can lead to 2 cognitive delays, with severe repercussions for 3 economic development.

4 (6) Clean water and sanitation are among the 5 most powerful drivers for human development. They 6 extend opportunity, enhance dignity, and help create 7 a virtuous cycle of improving health and rising 8 wealth.

9 (7) Diseases linked to unsafe water and poor
10 sanitation, as well as the time and energy women 11 often devote to collecting water, significantly reduce 12 economic productivity in less developed countries
13 and promote lifecycles of disadvantage.

14 (8) Expanding access to clean water and sanita-15 tion is essential for reducing the global burden of 16 disease, advancing economic and social development,
17 protecting basic human rights, prevention of violence
18 against women, and mitigating sources of conflict.

19 (9) Nearly 1,000,000,000 people across the 20 globe still suffer from chronic hunger. Water scar-21 city and poor water management reduce agricultural 22 productivity and threaten food security.

23 (10) Approximately half the world's population
24 lives in cities, often in slums characterized by unsafe

1 water, poor sanitation, lack of basic services, over-
2 crowding, inferior construction and insecure tenure.

3 (11) According to the 2005 Millennium Eco-
4 system Assessment, commissioned by the United Na-
5 tions, more than $\frac{1}{5}$ of the world population relies on 6 freshwater that is either polluted or excessively with-7 drawn.

8 (12) According to the United Nations, women
9 make up 70 percent of the world's poor. Yet, the 10 time they spend collecting water prevents them from 11 undertaking other activities, such as generating in-12 come or attending school.

13 (13) A lack of access to safe water and im-
14 proved sanitation close to home and at school can 15 impact girls' educational attainment and retention,
16 limiting their ability to break the cycle of poverty.
17 Research has found increases in girls' school enroll-
18 ment when clean water points were installed closer
19 to home, and increases in girls' school attendance
20 when separate latrines for boys and girls were pro-
21 vided on site. Meeting the water and sanitation tar-22 gets of the Millennium Development Goals would 23 provide an estimated 272,000,000 additional school
24 days per year.

1 (14) A lack of water points close to home or 2 safe, private latrines can put women and girls in iso-3 lated situations, making them more vulnerable to 4 sexual and physical violence. Violence against women
5 and girls has consequences ranging from psycho-
6 social trauma to heightened risk of HIV/AIDS.

7 (15) Faith communities across the United 8 States contribute significantly to the improvement of 9 water, sanitation, and hygiene in developing coun-
10 tries. By applying their expertise, providing services,
11 building the capacity of local organizations, estab-
12 lishing long-term partnerships with local commu-
13 nities, empowering marginalized groups, and serving 14 as a voice for the poor, faith-based and nonprofit or-15 ganizations complement and leverage assistance pro-
16 vided by the United States Government.

17 (16) United States businesses have developed
18 key technologies, donated goods and services,
19 partnered with private and public sector entities,
20 and invested their capital to improve water and sani-
21 tation in many developing countries.

22 (17) Implementation of the Senator Paul Simon
23 Water for the Poor Act of 2005 must be signifi-
24 cantly strengthened if the purposes of section 136 of

1 the Foreign Assistance Act, as redesignated and 2 amended by section 4 of this Act, are to be met.

3 (18) The monitoring and evaluation of the per-
4 formance of United States foreign assistance pro-
5 grams and their contribution to policy, strategies,
6 projects, program goals, and priorities undertaken
7 by the Federal Government is essential to improving
8 aid effectiveness.

9 SEC. 3. PURPOSE.

10 The purpose of this Act and the amendments made
11 by this Act is to strengthen implementation of the Senator
12 Paul Simon Water for the Poor Act of 2005 (Public Law 13 109–121) by—

14 (1) improving coordination and oversight of 15 water, sanitation, and hygiene programs within and 16 between United States Government agencies;

17 (2) increasing the sustainability of United 18 States Government-supported water, sanitation, and 19 hygiene programs;

20 (3) enhancing water, sanitation, and hygiene
21 expertise within the United States Agency for Inter-22 national Development; and

23 (4) integrating water and sanitation into pro-
24 grams and strategies for food security, global health, 25 environment, education, and gender equality.
